POSITION SUMMARY

The United States District Court for the Southern District of Illinois is seeking a full time term judicial law clerk to United States District Judge Staci M. Yandle. This term judicial law clerk position is for one year with the possibility of extension (not to exceed four years) and is available in August 2017. The term law clerk provides critical support to Judge Yandle by conducting legal research and preparing legal memoranda, orders, and draft opinions on both civil and criminal cases. The successful candidate for this position will report to the Benton courthouse and may qualify for regular, recurring, or ad hoc telework.

SUMMARY OF REPRESENTATIVE DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Review legal submissions (such as motions, petitions, supporting and opposing briefs), research and identify issues, prepare bench memoranda, and draft orders and opinions for Judge Yandle's review in a wide variety of practice areas in both civil and criminal cases. Manage docket and prioritize projects to ensure that motions are briefed prior to hearing, motions are cleared in a timely manner, motions are resolved in advance of final pretrial conference, and cases are ready to be called out to trial (or sentencing hearing) when scheduled. Perform administrative functions such as editing, proofreading, docketing in electronic case filing (CM/ECF) system, telephone communications, written correspondence, and scheduling. Keep abreast of changes in the law. A law clerk works cooperatively with other members of the judge's staff in order to effectively support the judge in fulfilling her judicial responsibilities.

QUALIFICATION STANDARDS

Applicant must be a law school graduate (or be certified as having completed all law school studies and requirements and merely awaiting conferment of degree) from a law school approved by either the American Bar Association or the Association of American Law Schools and have demonstrated one of the following accomplishments or proficiencies:

- Standing within the upper third of the law school class;
- Experience on the editorial board of a law review of such a school;
- Graduation from such a school with an LLM degree; or
- Proficiency in legal studies that, in the opinion of the appointing judge, is the equivalent of one of the above.

To qualify for grade 12, one year of legal work experience is required; to qualify for grade 13, two years of legal work experience. With the exception of grade 11, a bar membership also is required.

LEGAL WORK EXPERIENCE

Legal work experience is progressively responsible experience in the practice of law, in legal research, legal administration, or equivalent experience received after graduation from law school. Major or substantial legal activities while in military service may be credited on a month-for-month basis whether before or after graduation, but not to exceed one year if before graduation from law school.

COURT PREFERRED SKILLS

Prior experience in the federal judicial system, especially as a law clerk. Experience with electronic case filing systems, such as CM/ECF. Proficiency in Westlaw and/or Lexis. Excellent academic credentials. Superior research and writing skills. Strong organizational skills. Ability to prioritize tasks and juggle competing demands. Exceptional ability to communicate, articulate, and relate to coworkers and others with professionalism and integrity. Self motivated, able to manage multiple tasks and meet competing deadlines. Applicant must possess proficient typing and personal computer skills. Desirable qualifications include: detail-oriented, reliable, excellent oral and written communication skills, superb analytical skills, an aptitude for working well under pressure, understanding of court processes, familiarity with Federal Rules of Civil and Criminal Procedure, and an ability to work as part of a team.

BENEFITS

Judiciary employees serve under excepted appointments (not civil service). Excepted appointments are “at will” and can be terminated with or without cause. Judicial chambers law clerks are covered by the Judiciary Salary Plan. Optional federal benefits include health, life, and long-term care insurance, flexible spending accounts for health and dependent care, and dental and vision insurance. This position is subject to mandatory electronic fund transfer (direct deposit) participation for payment of net pay.

BACKGROUND INVESTIGATION REQUIREMENTS

As a condition of employment, the selectee considered for this position is required to undergo an FBI background check. The selectee may be appointed provisionally, and retention will depend upon a favorable suitability determination of the background check.

PROCEDURES FOR APPLYING

Application packets should include the following:

- Cover letter;
- Résumé;
